

Dear Members of the FCC:

We are outraged that the Consumer Bankers Union is trying to receive permission to call anyone on the no call list. Please deny their request. Besides the obvious invasion of privacy, please consider that our cell phones are on this list, and we have to pay for minutes used. Solicitors cost us a lot of money. PLEASE REFUSE THEIR REQUEST!

Best regards,

Dianne and Jim Pauley